Adult Education

Index to Volume 44 May 1971–March 1972

Pages 1–72 are in the May number; 73–144 in July; 145–216 in September; 217–276 in November; 277–348 in January and 349–420 in March.

(C) indicates that the item appeared in the 'Correspondence' section of the journal; (I), that it appeared under 'Information and events'.

ADMINISTRATION: A collegiate centre concept (C), 51; On committees, 28; Educational administration course (I), 332; Full-time vice-principals? Full-time registrars? Or both?, 365
Ambler, R. W.: Students in a local history diploma course (I), 188
Australia: Some unusual aspects of provision in Australia and New Zealand, 359

Barratt Brown, Michael: In defence of the WEA, 151
Baynes, Peter: On committees, 28
Bestwick, Dennis, with Charles Claxton: Co-operation in adult tutor training, 237
Blackstone, Tessa: Centre under a motorway (I), 192
Bowman, Judith: Education and the handicapped, 295
Bradbury, A. J.: No stamp required (I), 193
Brewer, M., with R. J. Brownhill and C. Tipton: Cross-disciplinary teaching, 245
BROADCASTING: Co-operation between ILEA and Radio London (I), 397
Brown, A. C.: Soccer and the spectator, 45
Brownhill, R. J., with M. Brewer and C. Tipton: Cross-disciplinary teaching, 245
Buchanan, Derek: Fees—and other factors, 14; Redundant (I), 60
Butler, J. C.: Introducing literature into the LEA programme, 23

Claxton, Charles, with Dennis Bestwick: Co-operation in adult tutor training, 237
Clews, Hilda: WI housing asociation for women (I), 125
Clyne, Peter: On the fringes, 94
Commentary: 3, 74, 146, 218, 278, 350
COMMUNITY PROVISION: Centre under a motorway (I), 192; A collegiate centre concept (C), 51; Community adult education—the role of the professional, 165; Community development and adult education—some comments, 308; Community development, citizen participation and adult education (I), 330; Do-it-yourself local newspaper—is this adult education?, 173; Provision for the coloured immigrant—a decade of WEA and LEA co-operation in Nottingham, 298
COMMUNITY WORK: Information and advisory unit for 'grass roots' community work, 124; New course in community education (I), 398
CORRESPONDENCE EDUCATION: Directed Private Study, 374
COURSES AND CONFERENCES: AAEA conference in Tanzania, 185; Adult learning and the teaching of adults (DES course), 120; ATAE annual conference, 129; ATTI annual conference, 120; Disadvantage—North of England Education conference, 388; ECA members' conference, 255, 390; ECA regional conference, 118; European Bureau of Adult Education biennial conference, 321; Inter Navex 71, 255; An introduction to counselling, East Suffolk LEA, 253; Leicestershire's long week-end, 320; Librarians' course on 'non-print' learning materials, 55; NFCTA annual conference, 118; North West Adult Education conference, 186; The outlook—AAE annual conference, 55; Second annual F. L. Ridgard memorial lecture, 325; Teaching industrial relations—SIT study conference, 186; Teaching techniques—a course for instructors, 57; Towards greater community development, 59; Training part-time teachers of adults—NIAE/LEA officers conference, 323; Workshop/conference for full-time staff in adult education, 322

Cowen, E.: Education and the handicapped, 293

Day, Peter, R.: Community development and adult education—some comments, 308

DEVELOPMENTS: An approach to publicity in an urban area, 121; Assessment (home thoughts from abroad), 395; Bramley Grange—the West Riding's residential college for FE staff, 190; Centre under a motorway, 192; An evening class for playwrights, 391; A greater social focus for university class members?, 122; Hundred up!, 259; Information and advisory unit for 'grass roots' community work, 124; Library/RB co-operation in the East Midlands, 62; New Opportunities for Women (NOW) courses, 327; No stamp required, 193; Redundant, 60; Students in a local history diploma course, 188; Trawler trip, 393; The WEA and the Common Market, 325; The Wednesday Group—a self-programming group of part-time teachers, 257; WI housing association for women, 125

Edmunds, Philip Turnbull, with Christopher Rees: Acacia Avenue and Coronation Street, 161

Edwards, Cliff: Hundred up! (I), 259

FINANCE: Fees—and other factors, 14

Forward projection, 86

Francis, Margaret: The Wednesday Group—a self-programming group of part-time teachers (I), 257

Goode, H.M.: Universities and the WEA (C), 248

Gordon, Hopeton L. A.: Reports from abroad: 1. Extra-mural work in Jamaica, 37

Gray, Robin: The teaching exercise, 232

HANDICAPPED PERSONS: Education and the handicapped, 293; Enquiry into adult education for the physically handicapped (C), 52; On the fringes, 94

Hodgson, D. M.: Bramley Grange—the West Riding's residential college for FE staff (I), 190

Hutchinson, Dr E. H.: Sir William Houghton and Canon Parsons (obituary), 317

Hutchinson, Enid: Few women at the top, 241

INDUSTRIAL TRAINING: Redundant (I), 60

Italy: An exemplary tale, 111

Jackson, Keith: Community adult education—the role of the professional, 165

Jackson, Keith, with Tom Lovett: Universities and the WEA—an alternative approach, 100

Jamaica: Reports from abroad: 1. Extra-mural work in Jamaica, 37

James, D. E.: Surrey University's new centre, 18

Jefferies, R. J.: Universities and the WEA (C), 181

Johnson, Alan B.: Trawler trip (I), 393

Jones, Lyndon H.: Directed Private Study, 374

Jones, W. S.: Full-time vice-principals? Full-time registrars? Or both?, 365

Jubilee address, 78

Kedney, R. J.: An approach to publicity in an urban area (I), 121; Considering training?, 224; The Wednesday Group—a self-programming group of part-time teachers (I), 257

Kirkwood, Colin: Do-it-yourself local newspaper—is this adult education?, 173

LANGUAGES: English as a 'functional tool', 380; Experimental course for language teachers (I), 399; The 'social relevance' of a Latin-and-Greek class, 179
LEA PROVISION: Introducing literature into the LEA programme, 23; Provision for the coloured immigrant—a decade of WEA and LEA co-operation in Nottingham, 298; Soccer and the spectator, 45
Levitt, John: Dr Stella Davies (obituary), 53
LIBERAL EDUCATION: The 'social relevance' of a Latin-and-Greek class, 179
LIBRARIES: Library Association alters Mature Registration Scheme, 264; Library/RB co-operation in the East Midlands (I), 62
LOCAL AUTHORITIES: An approach to publicity in an urban area (I), 121; Bramley Grange—the West Riding's residential college for FE staff (I), 190; Fees—and other factors, 14
Lovett, Tom, with Keith Jackson: Universities and the WEA—an alternative approach, 100

Macintosh, Duncan: English as a 'functional tool', 380
Mansfield-Cooper, Sir William: A Jubilee address, 78
Michaels, Ruth: New Opportunities for Women (NOW) courses (I), 327
McKenzie, H.: Youth Summer School, 312

New Zealand: Some unusual aspects of provision in Australia and New Zealand, 359
NEWS: Adult Education Travel Service, 398; Alteration in Hull University's B.Phil (Education) degree, 128; Amalgamation, 128; Arthur Markham Memorial Prize, 334; Bibliography of Adult Education, 261; Cambridge University bursaries for adult students 1972-73, 126; Cataloguing rules for non-book media, 264; City and Guilds to renumber examination schemes, 262; Coleg Harlech appeal, 400; Consumer affairs group, 195; Community development, citizen participation and adult education, 330; Co-operation between ILEA and Radio London, 397; Educational administration course, 332; Experimental course for language teachers, 399; Extra-mural class celebrates its half-century, 127; Henry Collins study grants, 332; History of NASU, 332; International study conference, 334; Jubilee year for Elsinore College, 195; A liberal education through the teaching of commercial subjects, 400; Library Association alters Mature Registration Scheme, 264; Lincolnshire community college, 398; Metrication Board publish quarterly bulletin, 263; National Innovations Centre gets new director, 262; NCAVAE Diploma in Educational Technology, 64; New consumer group, 331; New course in community education, 398; 'Occasional students' to be admitted to Open University, 263; Open University starts research on itself, 194; Pre-retirement bulletin, 65; Prison education, 397; Reactions to local government reorganisation proposals, 396; Ruskin College entrance essays, 331; Science and Technology news-sheet, 399; Society for educationally handicapped creates new post, 195; Summer school at Marly, France, 400; Summer schools for Open University students, 127; Training assistance for older professional workers, 65; Training and development service for office staff, 127; Two new residential centres, 329; What about those who don't enrol?, 332; Writers for schools and centres, 65
Nigeria: Reports from abroad: 2. Anomia in rural Nigeria, 40
Norburn, Roger: Provision for the coloured immigrant—a decade of WEA and LEA co-operation in Nottingham, 298

OBITUARY: Dr Stella Davies, 53; Sir William Houghton and Canon Parsons, 317; T. G. Jones, 318
Odokara, E. O.: Reports from abroad: 2. Anomia in rural Nigeria, 40
OPEN UNIVERSITY: 'Occasional students' to be admitted to Open University (I), 263; The Open University as a co-operative enterprise, 285; Open University starts research on itself (I), 194; Summer schools for Open University students (I), 127

Pearson, A.: Education in the new Holloway Prison for Women, 33
Pedler, Mike: The students at Alfreton Hall, 108
PRISON EDUCATION: Education in the new Holloway Prison for Women, 33; Prison education (I), 397
PROFESSIONAL AND PERSONAL: AAE Hertfordshire branch, 66; AAE opens its doors to part-time heads and organisers, 196; Amalgamation of two colleges of further education, 401; ATAE annual conference, 129; Dr Hutchinson honoured by short-term residential colleges, 128; People, 66, 130, 196, 265, 335, 401
PUBLICITY METHODS: An approach to publicity in an urban area (I), 121; No stamp required (I), 193

Rees, Christopher, and Philip Turnbull Edmunds: Acacia Avenue and Coronation Street, 161
RESIDENTIAL CENTRES: Two new residential centres (I), 329
Robinson, John: The Open University as a co-operative enterprise, 285
Rochester, Colin: The WEA and the Common Market (I), 325

SCIENCE: Science and technology news sheet (I), 399
Shaw, Roy: Universities and the WEA—myths and reality, 7
Shaw, Roy, with Linden West: Class dismissed?, 353
Simpson, P.: A collegiate centre concept (C), 51
Slader, Harold: The 'social relevance' of a Latin-and-Greek class, 179
SOCIETY AND EDUCATION: Acacia Avenue and Coronation Street, 161; A collegiate centre concept (C), 51; Do-it-yourself local newspaper—is this adult education?, 173; Forward projection, 86; A Jubilee address, 78; New Opportunities for Women (NOW) courses (I), 327; On the fringes, 94; Prison education (I), 397; Redundant (I), 60; What about those who don't enrol? (I), 332
SOCIOLOGY OF ADULT EDUCATION: Class dismissed?, 353; Few women at the top, 241
SPORT: Soccer and the spectator, 45
Stabden, Michael: Universities and the WEA (C), 115
Stock, A. K.: What do the trainees want?, 235
Stow, B. M.: Enquiry into adult education for the physically handicapped (C), 52
STUDENTS: Acacia Avenue and Coronation Street, 161; 'Occasional students' to be admitted to Open University (I), 263; The students at Alfreton Hall, 108; Students in a local history diploma course (I), 188; Summer schools for Open University students (I), 127

Taylor, John N.: Library/RB co-operation in the East Midlands (I), 62
TEACHING METHODS: Cross-disciplinary methods, 245; Introducing literature into the LEA programme, 23; Soccer and the spectator, 45
Thomas, Dr J. E.: Some unusual aspects of provision in Australia and New Zealand, 359
Tipton, C., with M. Brewer and R. J. Brownhill: Cross-disciplinary teaching, 245
TRAINING: A symposium on training, 224
Tring, Dr F. C.: Theodore W. Grubb—pioneer of adult education in Wensleydale 1910-1956, 303

TUTORS AND TEACHERS: Community adult education—the role of the professional, 165

UNIVERSITIES: In defence of the WEA, 151; Surrey University's new centre, 18; A greater social focus for university class members? (I), 122; Universities and the WEA—myths and reality, 7; (C) 115, 181, 248, 386; Universities and the WEA—an alternative approach, 100

Venables, Sir Peter: Forward projection, 86

Waller, Ross D.: An exemplary tale, 111
WEA: In defence of the WEA, 151; Library/RB co-operation in the East Midlands (I), 62; Provision for the coloured immigrant—a decade of WEA and LEA co-operation in Nottingham, 298; Universities and the WEA—an alternative approach, 100; Universities and the WEA—myths and reality, 7; The WEA and the Common Market (I), 325; WEA News (C), 316
Wegg, W. J.: Towards a policy for training part-time teachers, 229
West, Linden, with Roy Shaw: Class dismissed?, 353
Wiltshire, H. C.: Universities and the WEA (C), 249
Wirick, Arthur J.: Assessment (home thoughts from abroad) (I), 395

Yates, Timothy: A greater social focus for university class members? (I), 122
Young Volunteer Force Foundation (I), 124
Youth Summer School, 312

Books reviewed—educational topics only

Title and author	Reviewer	Page No.
The administration of technical colleges, by D. Charlton, W. Gent and B. Scammells	T. R. Knowles	406
Adult education and nation building, by John Lowe	H. C. Wiltshire	69
Adults learning, by Jennifer Rogers	A. K. Stock	133
The changing world of correspondence study—international readings, edited by O. Mackenzie and E. L. Christensen	Alan Charnley	202
Education et développement en Italie, by Lucien Trichaud	Ross D. Waller	200
Museums in education, DES Education Survey 12	J. M. Bestall	407
Night and day: the inter-action between an academic institution and its evening centre, by Myrtle S. Jacobson	D. J. Moore	337
Parents, politics and protests—a black and white paper on education, by Patrick Meredith	Allen Kingsbury	68
The place of education by correspondence in permanent education, by E. G. Wedell	Alan H. Charnley	270
The provision of education in England and Wales, by J. P. Parry	Frank Jessup	132

The school and community, Design Note 5, DES Architects and Building Branch	Derek Buchanan	271
The school and the community, by C. D. Poster	Peter Baynes	139
School for the community—a grammar school reorganises, edited by Timothy Rogers	Brian Stewart	405
School and society, by School and society Open University course team	Ralph Ruddock	338
A student's guide to efficient study, by D. E. James	W. E. Styler	203
Study by correspondence, by R. Glatter and E. G. Wedell	Alan Charnley	136
University adult education in the later twentieth century, by a working party of the UCAE	Ronald Clarke	70
What's the use of lectures?, by Donald Bligh	R. D. S. Fielden	403
Young people and leisure, by John Leigh	Peter Baynes	339

71
39
05
38
03
36
70
03
39